

The author and coauthor

In memoriam... Professor Emeritus of Unisantos Catholic University of Santos and Citizen Emeritus of City of Santos, our thanks.

Elcio Rogerio Secomandi

Holds seat No. 35_Albertino Moreira_ at the Santos Academy of Literature and seat No. 4_Visconde Taunay_ at the Historical and Geographical Institute of Santos. Is Colonel of Artillery, Economist, post-graduate in Business Management (FGV_Getúlio Vargas Foundation) and Military Sciences (ECEME_School of Command and Army Staff)

Also holds Academic Merit in the grade of Professor Emeritus, awarded by the University Council of the Catholic University of Santos, Order of Civic Merit in the grade of Officer, awarded by the National League for Defense (Brasilia, DF, created on 07 Sep 1916) and Order of Military Merit in the grade of Knight, granted by the Hon. Mr. President of the Republic, Spotlight economist - 2012 by CORECON / SP _ Regional Economy Council / São Paulo, SP, honorary citizen of the city of Guarujá, ICOFORT member and FUNCEB advisor.

Clotilde Paul (1931 – 2015)

Holds seat No. 36_ Emilia Freitas Guimarães_ at the Santos

Academy of Literature and seat No. 8_Paulo Gonçalves_ at the Historical and Geographical Institute of Santos. Graduated in Neo-Latin Languages, History and Law from the Catholic University of Santos. Master in English literature and PhD and Master in Social History from the University of São Paulo. Has several specialization and post-graduation courses in Brazil and Portugal, including researches in the Vatican archive.

Among the titles and honors, holds the Commendation Infant D. Henrique, granted by the government of Portugal (1981), and the prize "Ethic Professional of the year 2011", awarded by the Municipality of Santos. Integrates the Women Dictionary of the Twentieth Century - UFRGS. Is citizen emeritus of Santos. She is currently Director-Secretary of the Society Visconde de São Leopoldo, sponsor of the Unisantos.